

CAT RESOURCES: PODCASTS

How to Change Your Work Place

<https://podcasts.apple.com/us/podcast/how-to-change-your-workplace/id1346314086?i=1000567935411>

Podcast with case study examples about how authentic change is successfully implemented within organizations.

Ending Poverty Pathways - Cities & Communities

<https://soundcloud.com/tamarackinstitute/ending-poverty-pathways-5-cities-and-communities-ending-poverty-1>

From the Tamarack Institute. Cities and communities are best placed to assess challenges, harness community assets, bring people together across sectors, and nudge policy and systems change. Meaghan Reid of Vibrant Calgary, Erick Ambtman from End Poverty Edmonton, Monica Chaperlin from Living Saint John and Nicky Jones from Peel's Lived Experience Advocacy Group share key factors of success in ending poverty.

Ending Poverty Pathways - Built for Zero Canada

<https://soundcloud.com/tamarackinstitute/ending-poverty-pathways-7-built-for-zero-canada-for-ending-homelessness>

From the Tamarack Institute. Built for Zero Canada (BFZ-C) is a bold national change effort focused on ending homelessness. Marie Morrison (BFZ-C), Jaime Rogers (Medicine Hat), Dawn Wheadon (Moncton) and Lori Richer and Dominica McPherson (Guelph Wellington), explore the power of real-time data, advocacy, and the meaningful engagement of the private sector and of experts with lived and living experience of poverty.

Ending Poverty Pathways - Ending Indigenous Poverty

<https://soundcloud.com/tamarackinstitute/ending-poverty-pathways-8-ending-indigenous-poverty>

From the Tamarack Institute. From ensuring Indigenous peoples and communities are at the centre of the conversation, to addressing systemic racism, Cheryl Whiskeyjack and Leslie Varley outline first steps and showcase successful initiatives that can lead to ending Indigenous poverty in cities across the country.

The Ethical Rainmaker - The Metric of Love with Oregon Food Bank

<http://www.theethicalrainmaker.com/listen-now/s3-episode-3-the-metric-of-love-with-oregon-food-bank>

How can love be a metric and what does it look like to measure that instead of fundraising goals? The Oregon food bank surprised many folks in the nonprofit community when they revealed a new concept, measuring love instead of fundraising. In this episode, Nathan Harris and Vivien Trinh of the Oregon Food Bank, describe the thinking and process around how they changed the practices of the Oregon Food Bank to center love!

The Ethical Rainmaker - How To Feed A Movement with Tomme Beevas

<http://www.theethicalrainmaker.com/listen-now/s3-episode-4-how-to-feed-a-movement-with-tomme-beevas>

TV celeb and James Beard Award-winning chef Tomme Beevas talks about how the lynching of George Floyd, less than two miles from his restaurant, played out in the creation of Pimento Relief Services, a truly community-centered organization in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Learn about liberation in action through this inspiring story!

Dare To Lead - The Prepared Leader

<https://brenebrown.com/podcast/the-prepared-leader-part-1-of-2/>

From Brene Brown. "It's the first of a two-part series with Erika James, Ph.D., and Lynn Perry Wooten, Ph.D., about their new book, The Prepared Leader: Emerge From Any Crisis More Resilient Than Before. It's completely tactical and has taught me so much about leading in a crisis – and unfortunately, we have not seen our last crisis. We talk about what leaders can do today to prepare for what's next, as they add a fourth "p" to the triple bottom line framework (people, planet, and profit) for measuring a business's performance – and that's "preparedness.""

Dare To Lead - Leading Purpose in the Digital Age

<https://brenebrown.com/podcast/leading-with-purpose-in-the-digital-age/>

From Brene Brown. "In this episode, I am talking to Dr. Linda Hill, a researcher, professor of business administration, and chair of the Leadership Initiative at Harvard Business School. She is regarded as one of the top experts on leadership and innovation, and she has done a new study on how to lead in the digital era. We talk about her findings and what leaders are wrestling with today, the qualities of a digitally mature organization, and why digital transformation is less about technology and more about people. We also talk about leading for innovation rather than leading for change."

Leadermorphosis hosted by Lisa Gill

<https://leadermorphosis.co/#about>

A podcast exploring the emerging world of self-managing teams and progressive organizations.

Towards transformational cultural leadership – Diane Ragsdale in conversation with Stephanie Fortunato

<https://www.thethreebells.net/episodes/4>

In this episode, host Stephanie Fortunato speaks with Diane Ragsdale, Director and Co-Lead Faculty of the Cultural Leadership Program at Banff Centre for Arts & Creativity, about the need for transformational cultural leadership to ensure the resilience and relevance of the arts and cultural sectors, especially in navigating the Covid-19 pandemic.